San Diego, CA's CAPSIZE will release their debut full-length album 'The Angst In My Veins' this October via Impericon Records in Europe. The album was recorded with producer Jay Maas (Bane, Defeater) at Getaway Recordings in Haverhill, MA.

Carrying an unimaginable amount of raw emotional weight, 'The Angst In My Veins' shares an intense display of depression, honesty, anger, contemplation and reflection. The band's no-holds-barred approach to lyrics is musically matched through a mix of dark, dirty riffs and atmospheric interludes driven forward with quick, crisp drumming.

A flawless push and pull of dynamic delays and cascades of sound further contribute to an ongoing sense of urgency, dread, and anticipation throughout the album while lyrically maintaining a beautifully artistic intertwining of pain and fear. The Angst In My Veins reveals a depth of honesty, heartbreak and devastation that is rarely talked about - and impossible to ignore.

Right in time for the release of their new album CAPSIZE will head to Europe on the 'IMPERICON NEVER SAY DIE TOUR' with TERROR, STICK TO YOUR GUNS, COMEBACK KID and more.
